- Help downloading library applications.
- Setting up and using social media accounts.
- Setting up and managing an email account.

Climate Justice Book Club: Solved by David Miller

Date and Time: Thursday, September 29 06:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Address: VirtualVirtual

The Climate Justice Book Club is a forum to come together to discuss books and ideas exploring climate justice and climate solutions. Come meet new friends, read new books, and enjoy lively conversations about environmental and social sustainability topics bi-monthly, followed by a thoughtful discussion in a safe and welcoming environment!

This month's title: Solved: How the World's Great Cities Are Fixing the Climate Crisis by David Miller

Discussion Guide: Discussion Guide Questions

Hosted by the Coalition for a Livable Sudbury and the Greater Sudbury Public Library.

Please note: We have a limited number of copies. If you are done with your copy, please return it to your nearest library so that we can make it available to other group members.

The meeting will take place on Zoom (links and passwords will be emailed on the day of the discussion to those who register).
